83 acre development

Taking their fight to city hall(s)

By PAT SAFFORD

A LARGE GROUP of east Campbell and county residents let planners for a large development know Friday night they have an uphill battle on their hands.

The group's concern is with the 83 acre development planned for the Ainsley corporation and Lloyd property at the north side of Hamilton ave., between Bascom and Leigh ave. And their approach is to contact anyone and everyone connected with the project.

IF REZONING proposals scheduled to come before San Jose planners yesterday are approved, the quiet orchard, left, will be replaced with an 83 acre development, including commercial, offices and high density housing (up to 45 units per acre). Plans call for putting in the commercial first, with the balance to be constructed later. Campbell's concern with the plan centers around the intersection of Hamilton ave. at Bascom, now the busiest intersection in the county. When completed, the project would dump an estimated 21,000 additional cars onto that roadway. Residents of the adjacent area met last Friday and have organized to make formal protest over the proposal.

(Photography by Gordon Lew)

Last Friday a hurriedly-called meeting attracted 170 residents who live near the development site to Dover school to talk to the project architect and developer. Homeowners were told about Phase I of the project, which involves just commercial development and about 23 acres on the southeast part of the property. A department store, supermarket, restaurants and smaller satellite shops are planned.

BUT ANGRY residents weren't buying Friday.

After a 2½-hour session, a committee was formed to look into reactivating the old Hamilton Area Improvement Association, bolstered with $150 in donations contributed that night, and a good head of steam from those who strongly object to the project.

Sunday night that committee met to work out their approach in fighting the big development. And one method is to contact all city and county agencies. Monday night they planned to appear before the Campbell City Council to plead their case.

"Attractive nuisance"

Scout hall will 'bite the dust'

THE OLD SCOUT Hall at the corner of Grant and N. 3rd st. will face the wrecker's ball just as soon as the present tenants move out.

Monday night City Councilmen authorized spending $2,070 to demolish the building plus do some work on adjacent land which the city has been using.

For two years a travel and hiking group has been using that building at 161 Grant st. and complaints from neighbors sparked an eviction notice for the group in September. They won a month's delay and will be moving the last of their things out Monday.

Reason for the decision to raze the building, Councilman Norm Paul said Monday, is that it has become an "attractive nuisance."

City officials' negative view of that old building was bolstered by a report from Wally Byron, city building official, in which he described the old house as termite infested.

There's no immediate plans to sell the land though.

Under the terms of a will, which deeded the property to the city, any proceeds from the sale will have to be spent for recreation purposes.

Practicing their quick starts for the Campbell Turkey Trot Fun Run last week were, from left, Timothy Turkey and Trisha Carleton. The 4.5 mile run on Saturday, Nov. 20 starts at John D. Morgan park and winds its way down to Los Gatos Creek at Campbell ave. and then along the bicycle trails to Los Gatos Creek Park. The run is strictly co-ed and five age divisions have been set. Turkeys, naturally, go to all division winners with t-shirts for finalists and finish ribbons for all who run, walk or crawl across the finish line. Entry forms are available at City Hall, 75 N. Central ave., the library or by calling 378-8141, ext. 252.

We hear you

Some time ago $500 was voted by the City Council for the San Tomas School mini-park. We never received it and I've called the Public Works Department several times. The last time (the man) said they'd lost the benches we were supposed to receive and that they'd just send us the money instead. That was the first part of September. Can you find out about it?

PTA BOARD MEMBER

Editor's note: According to the new Public Works Director Joe Elliott, the mini-park funding was held up by a technicality. Almost a year ago the Council, by minute action, okayed giving $5,500 to three schools for their mini-parks. That was $2,000 each for Coventry and Rolling Hills and $1,500 (not $500) for San Tomas.

Unfortunately, Elliott says, that action required a formal resolution by the council since the money was coming from federal revenue sharing funds. That wasn't done so Elliott's bringing the matter back to the Council Nov. 22. He also said he'd be giving you a call this week.

I've been concerned about something I've seen on the new one-way streets: Campbell avenue in particular. And that is bicyclists going the wrong way on that street. Isn't it against the law? I'm concerned that one of them is going to get hurt.

LOCAL OBSERVER

Editor's note: According to Sgt. Bob Wallace of the Campbell Police Department, it is against the law. Says Wallace, "All laws relating to automobiles are applicable to bicycles." During the first week or two of the opening of the loop, patrolmen have been giving warnings to many and tickets to a few of the repeat offenders. But that "grace period" is expected to end soon and bicyclists can also receive traffic citations. Wallace suggests that the two-wheelers use Orchard City drive when traveling east and stay in the right hand lane.

Regarding the stupid, thoughtless, derogatory remarks which were circulated about Hank Dacuyan, I would like to let Hank know that as a parent of two children at Monroe school, I ALWAYS found his door, mind and heart open to any problem or situation involving our children. He is a kind, warm, sincere person dedicated to helping children reach their fullest educational potential. I respect Hank as a person and as an educational figure and appreciate the many times he assisted our children emotionally and educationally. Thanks again, Hank.

A MONROE PARENT

I just wanted to let you know that I was proud of the editorial in the PRESS last week. It was short and to the point, but it said something that needed saying.

AGREES WITH VIEW

There's something I just had to call about. Yesterday a Westmont student, who is mentally retarded, was beaten up on the way home from school because the guys thought he was gay. Today, I just heard from my daughter that that boy was hit by a car on his way home from school. I'm furious about that attack. It reminds me of what happened to that young serviceman who was beaten to death during basic training. He was retarded, too. I just want to say that I hope the school

A change of heart over the change of meetings

THE CITY Council won't be changing their meeting dates after all, they decided Monday night.

Earlier, Councilman Bill Podgorsek had proposed changing council sessions to Tuesday nights. Reasons his proposal included the fact that all holidays which fall on a Monday require the Council to meet Tuesdays anyway, the hope that the change would bring out more people to council session and his feelings that he'd rather be watching Monday night sports on television.

The original motion passed by a 3-2 vote.

BUT WHEN the matter came up for first reading Monday two of that original majority had changed their minds.

Tuesday nights would have been a problem for two council members, since they sometimes have other meeting commitments. And Councilman Rusty Hammer had another reason for taking a second look at the change.

"There's also the possibility the city will lose current weekly press coverage," he commented.

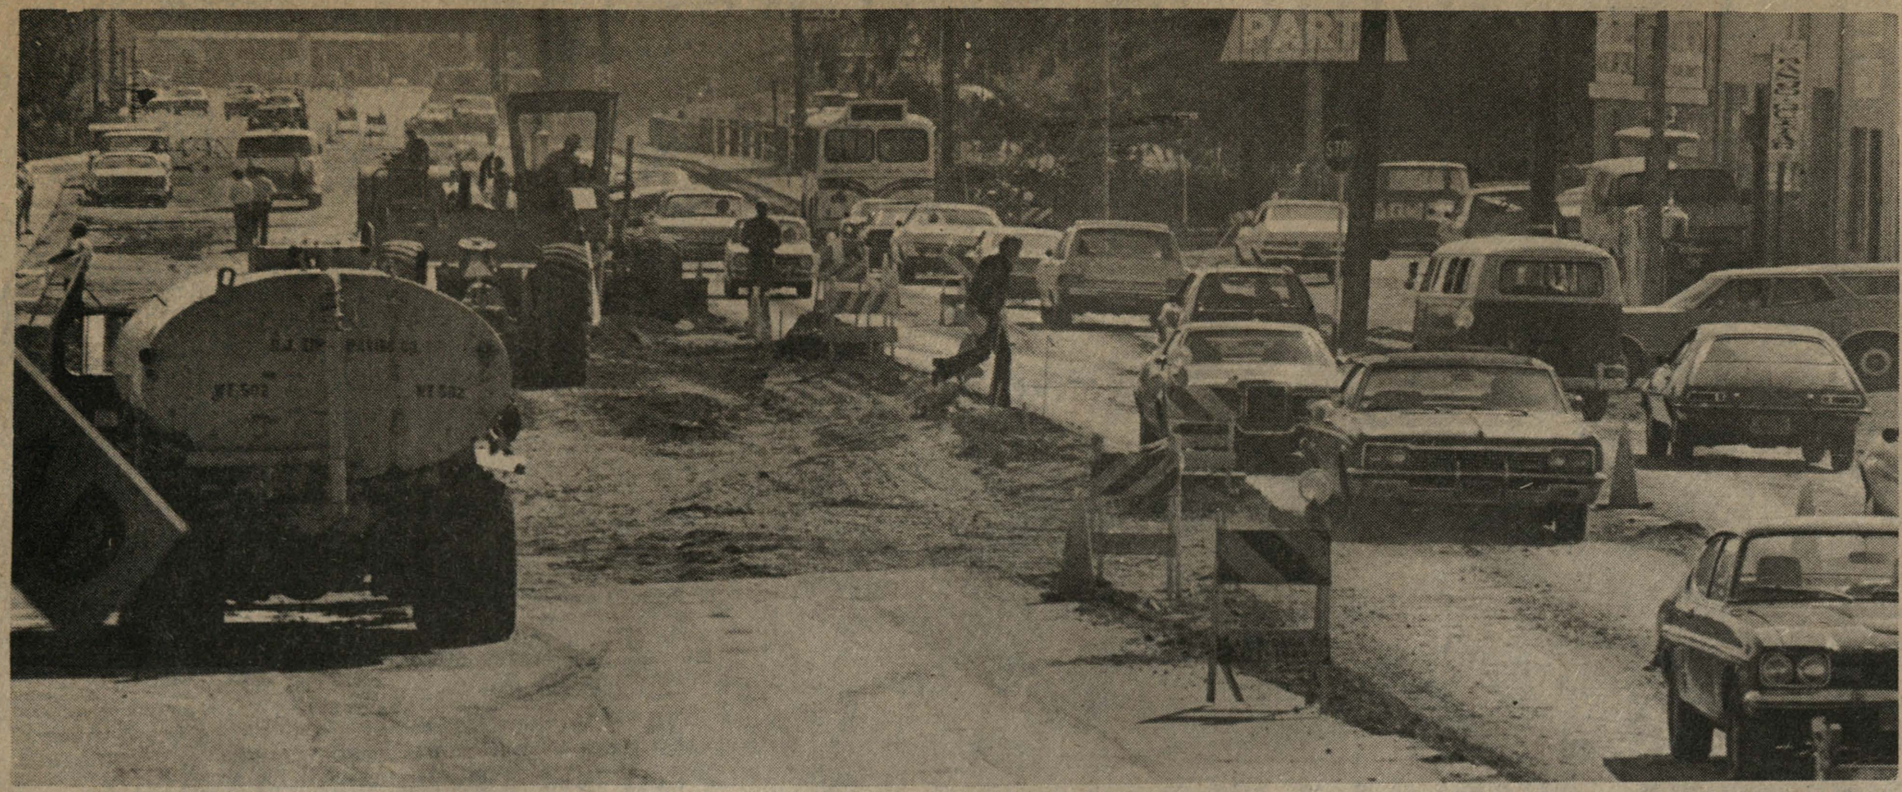
The motion by Podgorsek to hold the first reading on the change failed for lack of a second.

AND A compromise suggestion, that meetings begin at 7:30 instead of 8 p.m. also failed.

This time it was Podgorsek doing the objecting.

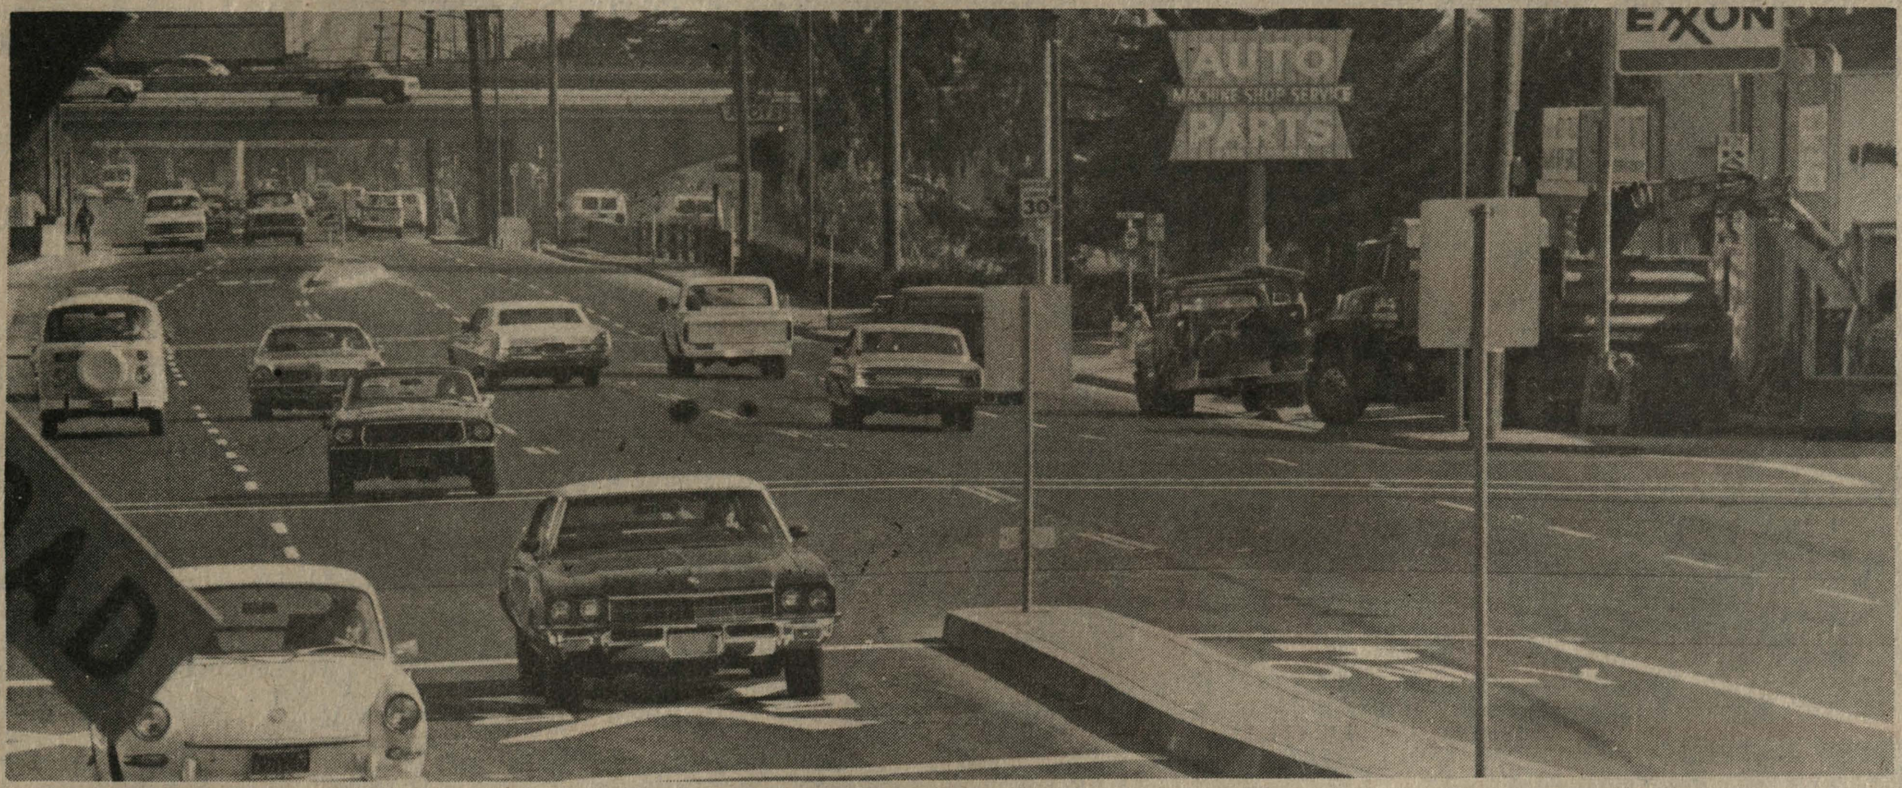
"I oppose that," he declared," because then I wouldn't even be able to see the first half."

Before......



......and after

THE PICTURE has changed along Campbell ave. these days with the new loop street open for business. But there's still some finishing touches before it's complete. Like clean up work, signs and stripping modifications and plantings in the islands. Work should be completed by the end of November. Engineering Manager Bill Helms says.



TRAFFIC IS flowing faster now with Orchard City drive open. Meanwhile, plans for the north loop street are going ahead full steam. Most of the property has been acquired now and the only wait will be for the $425,000 in construction costs, not covered by the $1.2 million loop street bond measure. The city's hoping to get some funds through the new public works bill. If things move ahead on schedule construction on the north loop could begin next spring, with a completion date in October.

Deluge expected for top school district post

THE NATIONWIDE search for a new schools chief for the Campbell elementary district is just underway but already 27 individuals have applied for the job.

According to Dr. Roy Adamson, advisor to the school board, "the response has been very good," to the recruitment drive and he expects to have about a third of the total number of applications submitted by the end of this week. Deadline for applying is December 10.

Superintendent Jim D'Avis announced his resignation from the top district post earlier and the school board has said they expect to have his replacement by Jan. 27.

Adamson, who's in Los Angeles and flies up here periodically, said Friday he's been receiving many calls from educators in the south state area.

"I know we have a good bunch of people applying," he added.

Starting salary for the new Superintendent will be $34,500 or more and the length of contract will be negotiable.

A screening committee will began sorting through applications Dec. 14, according to the board's time table, with interviews of finalists to begin about Jan. 4.

The district consultant is being paid on a per diem basis ($175 a day) plus expenses and at the Oct. 28 board meeting trustees okayed payment to Adamson of $1,454 for his services during October.

Creature allowed out after dark

THE CAMPBELL Creature won a victory, of sorts, Monday night at the City Council meeting.

There to protest the 1 p.m. curfew imposed by Police Chief Don Burr Oct. 30, the Creature took his case to city officials and, for a time, was losing.

At one point, as the 6 foot 8 inch monster stood at the podium, Councilman Norm Paul moved that the matter be continued, "For 300 years."

But the city's critter, with a big assist from Youth Commissioner Ken Podgorsek, finally prevailed. Through negotiations, a compromise was worked out with Burr allowing creatures and monsters in Campbell the same rights as anyone else under the age of 18.

So curfew for the Creature will be 10 p.m.

District made money on summer school program

THE SUMMER program in the Campbell elementary school district is a real money making proposition.

In a report to the school board by Director of Instruction Ruth Launer, this year's figures show the district came out over $119,000 ahead on the summer school, speech and music programs.

The district received state funds for each student enrolled (average daily attendance) and that stipend ranged from $8.18 a day per speech student to a total of $1,292 for each music or summer school student.

OF THE three offerings this year the speech program was the only one that didn't make expenses, costing the district $1,641.50 out of $18,000 total exepnditures.

The music program, which cost $18,817, received $38,997 showing a net income to the district of $19,980.

Biggest money maker, and biggest enrollment, was in the summer school program where 146 students cost the district $87,338 for salaries and supplies and brought in $188,590; for net income of over $100,000.

INCLUDED IN the report were evaluation reports from all schools taking part this year and comments from parents and teachers.

And the parents rated field trips as the part of summer school their child liked best. Second place went to the arts and crafts program with more studious pursuits at the bottom of the popularity list. For example: 45 Blackford parents said their children liked field trips best, compared to three who checked the "spelling and writing words" box and four who checked "math games."

Among comments the overwhelming majority were positive and most parents want the district to continue the summer program.

But one parent had a comment on the profit the district is reaping.

"I WOULD like to see the district make less profit and provide more funds to the school so that the students are the benefactors," the parent wrote, citing the $15.25 in lab fees and field trip costs she spent for her two boys.

And a teacher had a concern for supplies.

"I feel there was a great need for basic material for each classroom," was the comment. "We were very frustrated by not having such basic supplies as phonographs, scissors, or paint brushes available to us."

Most respondent's however, had kudos for the program. Like the one that wrote, "Summer school was great this year."

More woes for pumpkin patch man

THE CAMPBELL man who operated a pumpkin patch on Hamilton ave. this year, was directed to meet with civic improvement commissioners if he wants to run a Christmas tree lot at the same location.

Dennis Seymour was called before the City Council Monday night by Councilman Rusty Hammer who had a few bones to pick with the man.

Like why did he allow a hot air balloon to be flown over the Pumpkin Patch without a license? (Seymour said he didn't commission the balloon and it was not inflated on his leased property).

And a matter of a runaway pony that allegedly caused damage to surrounding property (The man said he hadn't heard of the incident and would check into it).

Then there was the question of why a truck was parked on that land (near Winchester blvd.) last weekend selling stuffed animals. Seymour replied that he only leases the property through October and then again starting around Thanksgiving.

"I don't understand why I'm here," Seymour commented at one point. He suggested that the city have the police handle problems, such as unlicensed sales, instead of calling him to task.

AND SEYMOUR had some criticism himself Monday night.

He told councilmen that vandals had struck the property recently. "I found every light bulb broken, the PG&E meter box smashed and the outhouse turned upside down," he told officials. "And I think it's funny that the police or the neighbors didn't see anything."

Seymour was directed to meet with the Civic Improvement Commission (who earlier voiced concern over the unsightly appearance of the property) and that a report come back to the Council. . . Before he begins putting out his Christmas trees.

CAMPBELL'S nominee for the Distinguished Citizen award for the year went to Irma Reese, director of the West Valley Progressive Senior Center. One of 83 women honored at a dinner by the Girl's Club of the Mid-Peninsula, Mrs. Reese didn't receive enough individual attention according to city officials, so Monday night they voted to give her a second commendation by the City.

Butterfield to appear in Campbell

FORMER WHITE HOUSE staffer Alexander Butterfield will be appearing in Campbell next Thursday, replacing Charles Kuralt, who had to cancel his scheduled talk due to commitments to CBS.

"A Personal Perspective of Watergate: Ethics in Government," is the topic of Butterfield's address, scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday Nov. 18 in the Campbell high school auditorium.

The former administrator for the Federal Aviation Administration (1973-75), served under President Richard Nixon from 1969 to 1973 as presidential assistant and secretary to the Cabinet. He was the first to reveal the existence of the White House tapes during congressional hearings. On a recent morning network TV show Butterfield revealed he's been among the ranks of the unemployed since that startling disclosure.

Tickets for the talk are available through the West Valley College community services office, 44 E. Latimer ave. or be calling 379-9415.

Cost is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

New alcohol program for juveniles set

A TREATMENT PROGRAM for juveniles with alcohol-related problems is underway in the West Valley area.

Available at the West Valley Alcoholism Services Center, 14195 Capri drive, the program gets many referrals through the court system with juveniles taken into custody for alcohol-related offenses.

Arranged by Richard Bothman, chief probation officer, and David Hampton, director of the county bureau of alcoholism services, the center is also available to assist any person, adult or juvenile, who comes seeking help with alcoholism.

For more information call the center at 379-7020.

According to Bothman, his department has been seeing an increasing number of alcohol-related cases in recent weeks. And the county has opened two new centers in response to the need. The other center is in East San Jose.

- Wrapping presents.
- A "Super Shopper Service" for those who go through torture trying to find a present for Uncle George.
- Running errands for shut-ins and busy mothers.
- Shopping for a Christmas tree and getting it set up (you do the decorating).

Those with jobs that need doing should call YES Director Maureen Morgan at 378-1666 (2 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday) or 378-2968.

Or visit the Campbell Chamber of Commerce office, 93 S. Central ave. in The Factory.

HCD hearings

Thom wants to talk about spending money

THOM McCUE wears two hats and, so far, is juggling both with ease.

As grant coordinator for the city's housing and community development program, he looks after the federally funded program with a $330,000 budget for next year, makes sure the city is meeting federal requirements for funding and, this week, holds public hearings to find out what people want.

In addition McCue is in charge of the city's fledgling housing rehabilitation program, and expects to come up with a proposal by Dec. 15 to present to the City Council.

Community meetings are scheduled this next week at three area schools and McCue wants residents of Campbell and the surrounding area to show up and voice their views.

Dates are Monday, Nov. 15 at Westmont high school; Tuesday, Nov. 16 at Dover school and Wednesday, Nov. 17 at Campbell high. All meetings start at 7:30 p.m.

There's lots of things the city can spend money on through this federal program, now in its third year. But the main purpose of the funding is to help residents of the moderate and low income areas, and that object has to be kept in mind if the city wants to stay out of the difficulty Los Altos found itself in earlier this year. They'd obtained funds to build a park and community center, designed to serve the needs of moderate and low income people. The park project went ahead but the city decided against the center. And the government decided against giving them the money for any part of the project, park or center.

THAT CITY'S loss was Campbell's gain as the City Council recently allocated its $41,000 share of Los Altos' lost funds to the city's housing rehab program.

What can't you do with the funds?

"Generally, you can't pay salaries or provide services benefiting the entire community," McCue explained last week.

But for every rule there's an exception and the new city coordinator cited one.

"Generally, a fire station would not be allowed," he explained, "but, if it was in a target area (low and moderate income families) it might qualify."

Last year Campbell had to do a quick switch with about $50,000 of its HCD funding, when it found the child care program and the senior citizen nutrition program would not be allowed. What officials did was to fund those programs out of federal revenue sharing and use HCD funds for street projects.

But that probably won't be allowed in the future, McCue says. With the HCD program maturing, regulations are getting more stringent and mistakes can mean lost revenue for the City.

And that's also part of his job. To keep the city out of trouble.

Surplus site

No takers yet for the old school property

NO FORMAL bids had been received last week for the old Campbell grammar school property but two agencies said they're "very interested" in trying to come up with a plan.

The 60 day waiting period for public agencies to make their move is past and the Campbell elementary district is now planning to get appraisals on the property before putting out a formal call for bids.

A spokesman for the Palo Alto Housing Development Corporation said Monday his group hopes to construct 200 units of senior citizen housing on three acres of that parcel.

Co-Director Lou Goldsmith said he has been meeting with city Planning Director Art Kee to discuss zoning requirements for the property. He also gave Kee, and another staffer, a tour of his firm's Litton Gardens in Palo Alto, which is a senior housing complex built on the site of the old Litton School.

"PEOPLE GET uptight about the density," Goldsmith commented. "Seventy five units to the acre sounds like a lot." But, he explained, when you're talking about small studio apartments for the elderly, it's a whole different story.

And the Palo Alto firm, in cooperation with the county housing authority, isn't interested in putting in anything smaller.

"Two hundred units in a nice location with amenities nearby would be a find project," Goldsmith declared.

"The community needs to understand it does not have any of the stigma of public or family housing," he added. Locally, problems at San Tomas Gardens (a low income family complex) have caused criticism of that project.

But if that senior housing plan is going to get off the ground, there are some serious questions to be answered. Like, will the school district consider a partial sale? Goldsmith said he hadn't been in touch with school officials yet but planned to this week.

AND THE REAL key to any further planning is funds. With the failure of the state-wide housing proposition Nov. 2, money for new developments will be in short supply.

With no formal proposals by public agencies trustees can now put the land and buildings up for sale to the highest bidder, including private developers. During that 60 day period, public agencies had first rights to the property.

County Housing Authority Director John Burns has another idea for that parcel; a combination of commercial, office and residential.

"It has to be dual purpose," Burns commented Friday. "With housing a very small part of the overall development." The Director would like to see a combination of small shops, office facilities and housing for the elderly on that prime piece of downtown land.

But again, the key is funds and Burns is looking for money.

"I only want a couple of million," he laughed.

IF YOU have 300 Christmas cards to address this year, and writer's cramp has already set in, hire a teen through the Youth Employment Service to give you a hand. Above, from left, Mindy Cleveland and Laura Connelly are two of those ready to help. Call 378-1666 for more information.

INSPECTING a likely prospect for housing rehabilitation in Campbell is the new director of the rehab program, Thom McCue. But next week he's taking over another role in city government; conducting public hearings on how to spend the $330,000 in federal housing and community development funds the city will receive next year. Anyone who can't attend any of the three evening meetings (see story) can call McCue at 378-8141 (planning department).

LATE NOTICE IS NO NOTICE

Last Thursday West Valley College trustees set up a public hearing on the stadium for Wednesday, Nov. 10. Officials stated publicly they hoped residents throughout the district would appear to give their views on this important issue.

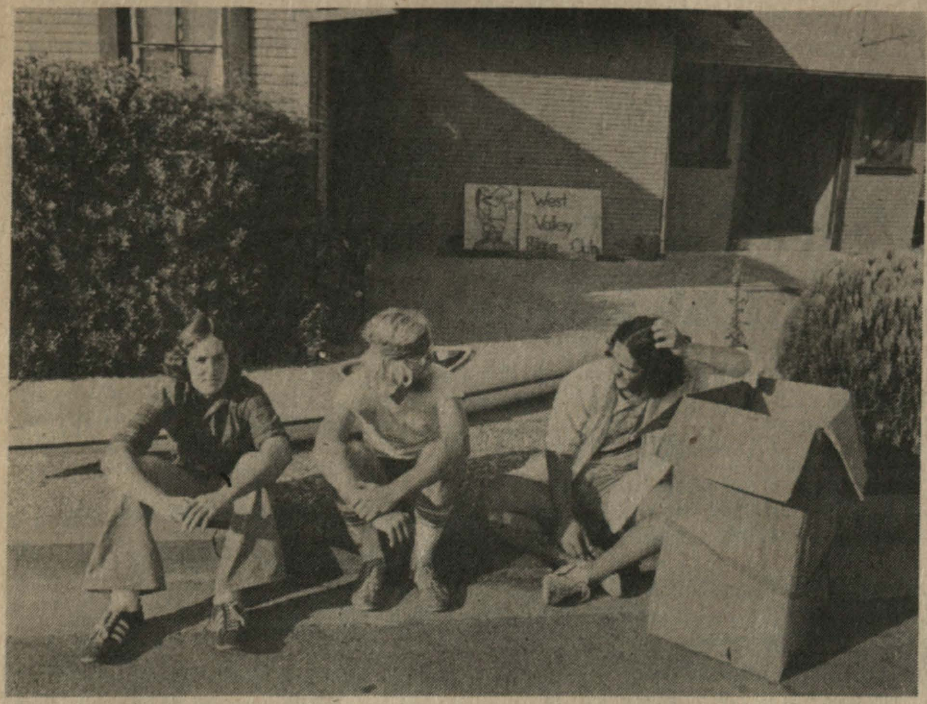
While the daily newspapers were able to give advance notice of this meeting, several community weeklies, including the CAMPBELL PRESS, were not.

We question the board's judgment in setting that date since it left no time for adequate public notice.

In our opinion either a later date should have been selected or trustees should have acted earlier to set that Nov. 10 date.

No doubt that meeting will be packed with people anxious to be heard on the issue.

But if the board wanted to hear from "all" residents interested in having their say, they could certainly have made it a little easier on their constituents.



They're moving out

IT'S MOVING week at the Wilderness Center at 161 Grant street as the club shifts its offices to 550 S. 1st street in San Jose. The center, formerly known as the West Valley Hiking Club, had been using the city-owned building for $1 a year for the past two years until the city sent out an eviction notice in September. Complaints from neighbors plus the group's not living up to its agreements with the city sparked the ouster. In October, the group requested, and got, a 30 day extension. According to new promotions manager Helen Scoggins, most furnishings have already been moved and the building will be vacant by this Tuesday. Meanwhile, City Councilmen have asked for demolition costs for the building and a report was scheduled Monday.

We Hear You

and police authorities take strong measures against the boys who would do such a thing.

Angry Reader

I, for one, am shocked at the cavalier attitude San Jose evidently has for its taxpayers now being served by the Campbell fire department. How dare they decide we don't need paramedic service? To me, if I had to choose between fire or paramedic service, I'd pick the latter. Houses are important but, to me, the paramedics mean saving lives. And that's most important.

Cherry Lane Annex Resident

That new district policy being discussed (encouraging student murals with the proviso they be removable) is fine as far as it goes. But I just heard something disturbing. Parkway school had murals painted on plywood panels which were removed when that site became the county child care center. It's being reported that the district has lost those panels. Is it true?

Art Lover

Editor's note: According to Superintendent Jim D'Avis you're correct. Somehow, in moving district supplies from that surplus school site, they were misplaced and, to date, have not been located.

I had a real close call on Campbell avenue last night with a wrong way driver that almost hit my car headon. I think the signs ought to be clearer. That's the second time I've seen someone driving the wrong way on that street and it's only been one-way for a week.

Rattled Motorist

Editor's note: You're not alone. I had the same experience last week, too. Luckily, there was no one in the right hand lane so I was able to pull over in time. The signs are clear enough, I think. Maybe it's the drivers familiar with the old two-way Campbell avenue downtown who are having the problem. For example, my son was with me and, as the car came at us, was yelling, "Mom, you're on the wrong side of the street!" It took three blocks and a half a dozen signs to convince him it's all right to drive on the left side of the road. (See photo.)

I agreed with a lot of what Dave Jury had to say last week (criticism of the City Council) but I think the PRESS pulled its punches.

Council Observer

That story about Jury in the paper last week was unfair. He was moving out of town anyway so why did he have to criticize the Council?

Impressions

THE FRUITLESS SEARCH

You'd think the easiest thing to find, with Thanksgiving Day approaching, would be a turkey. But last week a frantic, and fruitless search was conducted for a gobbler.

This week the PRESS cover features an announcement of the Turkey Trot Fun Run coming up and, what is more logical than lining up a turkey to do some trotting for the camera?

The big problem in trying to locate one was that we needed a live turkey and they're apparently in short supply. We tried the poultry ranches, local vets, feed store owners (for a lead on who's buying turkey feed) and thought we had a winner in the Happy Hollow Baby Zoo.

No luck there either. Seems they had two turkeys alright but one died and the other got too aggressive to keep. And they didn't keep a record of who they gave that feisty gobbler to.

So the turkey on today's cover was supplied gratis by the Campbell Costume Company.

P.S. If you know of any local turkeys, the poultry variety, please let us know and we'll try to get a picture for next year.

CAMPBELL NATIVE DIES

June Rice dropped a note to the PRESS recently to tell us of the death of her sister Nina Brown Parker, who succumbed to cancer last month at the age of 77.

The Campbell native, most recently living in Reno, was the granddaughter of John Bollinger who settled on a farm on what is now Bascom ave. and donated land for a school. "Nope, it wasn't named for him," June writes, "It was the old Hamilton School located on land across from Dick's Market.

June of Campbell and her sister Bessie Merrill of Saratoga are the only children now living from that family of 12.

An even $100,000

CAMPBELL added an even $100,000 to its coffers recently as the second advance payment for sales and use taxes from the state board of equalization.

The funds represent the October distribution of advance payments for the third quarter of this year.

IT'S NOT A CASE OF 'PINK ELEPHANTS'

Early morning motorists in Campbell have been startled to see the water truck sprinkling down the Astro Turf in the median strips. But it's true. That plastic grass needs a bath to clean off the grime.

But I guess the San Jose police department doesn't believe it.

The public works men always call in to report these 3 and 4 a.m. wash downs since the roadway will be slippery. And after the Campbell police dispatcher recently acknowledged the crews "watering" the plastic grass, a message came through on the radio.

"Confirm here," the San Jose dispatcher quipped, "You're also going to cut it with the invisible lawn mower."

BOARD SHOULD FINISH WHAT THEY STARTED

Editor:

On occasion, throughout the last few months I have read letters to the editor concerning the bleachers and lights for the football stadium of West Valley College in Saratoga.

It is my understanding that the matter has been distorted and that personal bias has been emphasized throughout the proceedings.

The board represents the district, comprised of Santa Clara, part of San Jose, Los Gatos, Monte Sereno, Campbell and Saratoga. I feel that the board must consider this seriously and not be dictated to by a small representation of the district.

The challenge of the board is to finish what they have started and that is to complete the Physical Education complex.

Many citizens take advantage of the tennis courts, running track and other facilities, and this is good. When bleachers and lights are installed another group will find a need fulfilled. This is so whether they are participants or spectators.

The cost factor must be considered and the longer the delay the greater the cost.

I trust the board will consider the project in the immediate future and vote to proceed.

STUDENT SENATE PRAISE

Editor:

On Tuesday, Nov. 2 I attended a public meeting of the Student Senate at West Valley College. The topic under discussion was a resolution to ask the governing board to abandon plans for the stadium at the Saratoga campus.

The students were concerned about the adverse environmental aspects of the stadium, particularily in relation to the Oddfellows Retirement Home adjacent to the proposed stadium, the value of the half million dollar expenditure to the entire student body and about the rising cost of education and the community's ability and willingness to pay for other than educational necessities.

Of the approximately 12 speakers (six for and six against the stadium), all but four were students. The West Valley college environmental club, Earth Household, requested a member of the West Valley Taxpayers and Environmental Association to make a five minute presentation on the community concerns. All the other speakers, (5) against the stadium project, were students. On the other hand, the proponents of the stadium were Steve Keller from the college administration, Larry Jennings, athletic director of West Valley College, and the Rev. Ben Gould, president of the Board of Trustees; along with three student speakers.

I believe the student government at the college is to be commended on their handling of this very controversial matter. The President conducted an excellent public hearing, while keeping all presentations balanced and well-timed. In addition, there was a question and answer period at the end of the presentations for further clarification.

I do not feel, however, that it was appropriate for the president of the governing board, before whom a final resolution will be presented, to offer arguments for one side. By taking a position before the students, he indicated he had already made up his mind.

At a later meeting, Thursday, Nov. 4, the Student Senate again discussed the stadium issue and voted to reconsider after first polling the student body. This poll will occur during the student body elections in December.

A request was also made that the student views be solicited without any undue interference from the faculty, administration or outside community.

I sincerely hope the board will also consider the objections to the stadium that have been raised, listen to the student's concerns regarding the environmental and economic value of spending $500,000 for a spectator facility.

The students have shown their concern for the tax dollar and I believe they should be commended.

A very tired teletype machine

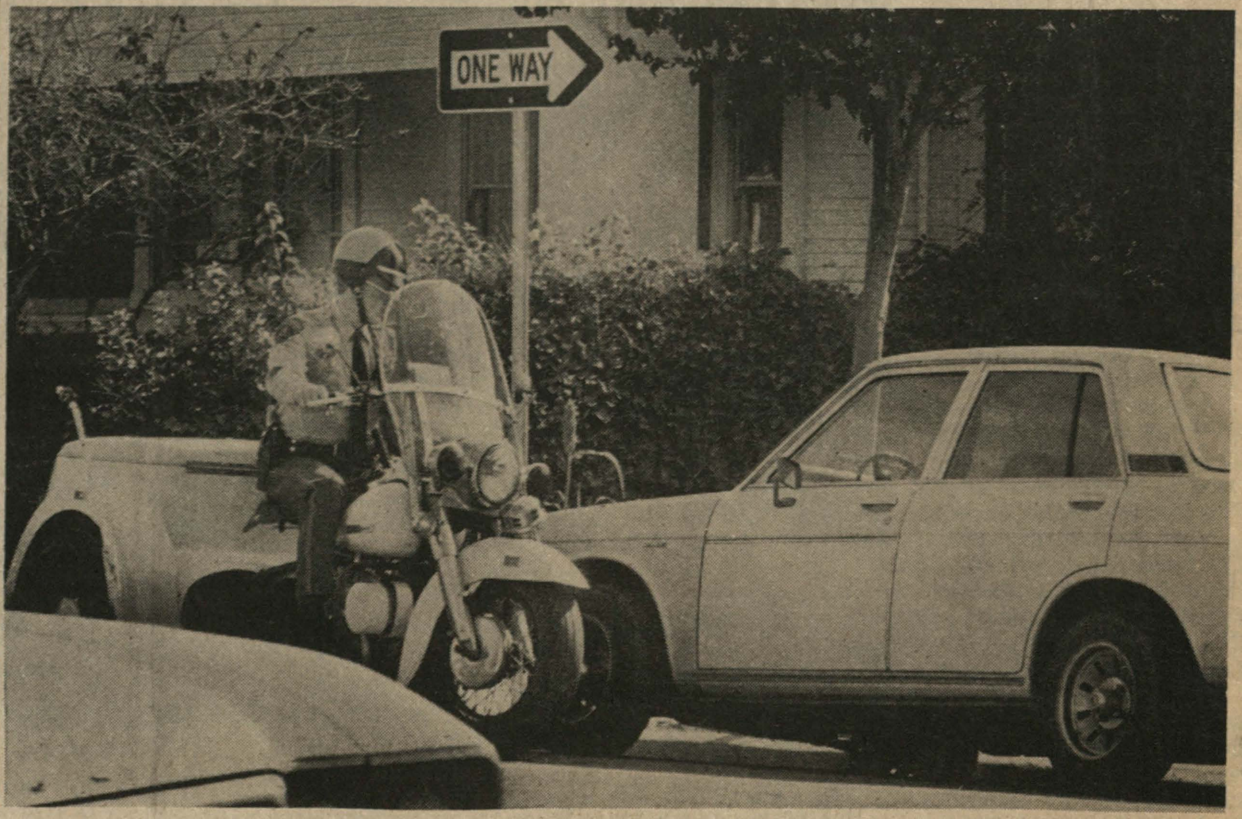
A ROUTINE traffic warrant check last week turned into a real conversation piece for Campbell police staffers.

After stopping a motorist near the Pruneyard for a traffic violation, the officer asked for a warrant check and, finding he was wanted, took the man into custody.

When police asked for a complete readout of all warrants, the teletype machine sprung to life and began ticking off case after case for the next hour and a half.

In all the man was wanted for 42 outstanding warrants, most parking tickets that had lapsed, and the bail totaled $1,007. All were from San Francisco.

The man was booked into county jail and later transferred to the San Francisco jail facility.



THE TRANSITION along Campbell avenue downtown has been difficult for some motorists with old habits hard to break. Campbell patrolmen have been handing out a lot of warnings lately but there's some violations that deserve a ticket, even on the first time around. Like this car parked the wrong way . . . under the "One Way" sign. Photographer Gordon Lew got this candid shot last Wednesday.

New bingo law

A sour note for the drum and bugle corps

By PAT SAFFORD

THE NEW BINGO law, which takes effect this January, will put some serious crimps into the style of Campbell's Knight Raiders Drum and Bugle Corps.

The reason: Last year about $70,000 of the group's $95,000 budget was raised through their weekly bingo games held in Santa Clara.

And if the Corps as well as other non-profit groups, don't make some organizational changes, that law could put them out of business entirely. According to Director Garth Benham, that law okayed by California voters limits bingo games to non-profit charitable organizations. That lets out such groups as the Veterans of Foreign Wars (non-profit, veterans), The Elks Club (non-profit, fraternal), and the Corp (non-profit, educational).

But the local group plans to remedy that situation. "The parent's organization will incorporate as a non-profit, charitable group," Benham explained.

Greatest impact of the new law will be on net proceeds and how the game is run; both problems the Director explains.

"Profits will be taxed to the hilt," Benham declared. He estimates taxes on a profit of $70,000, if the group raises that much again next year, would be about $20,000.

AND ATTENDANCE at the weekly sessions, which now numbers between 300 and 700, could drop drastically due to another stipulation.

"The law outlaws 'Blackout'," Benham noted. That's the bonus prize of $2,500 the group offers to anyone who covers all the numbers on their card. This super prize is now awarded about every six weeks, Benham says.

The solution, to keep the group afloat, financially, is to try to come up with more funds through sponsoring groups. (One V.F.W. post now donates $6,000 a year), plus trying to keep attendance up by offering several of the $250 (maximum under law) prizes.

This year, their first time in the highest drum and bugle corp division, the open class, the Knight Raiders came back with "mixed success" from their six week tour.

Benham says the group lost their marching instructor just before the tour began and that showed in competition.

"Our goal was to come out among the top 25," Benham explained. And for their musical ability, they topped that goal. They placed 18th out of the top 50 corps in the country.

Marching however, was another story. They placed 48th out of 48 competing corps.

But next year, Benham says, things will be different. "We have to new marching instructors," he explained, "and we plan to add a third next month."

Goal for the 1977 tour is to make the top 12 (those shown last August on network television) and they plan a six week tour of the midwest and Pacific northwest with a stopover at the national competition in Denver.

THE CORPS is being enlarged too, and recruiting is now underway for musicians. "We need any kind of brass player," Benham says.

Practices are held Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. in the band room of Rolling Hills junior high school and on Sundays at noon at Yerba Buena high school in San Jose.

And late this month the group will be adding a third practice day; Thursday, and Benham is now looking around for a site.

This past year the Corp has carried Campbell's name throughout the country, and Benham would like to see the group carry more.

"I hope someone comes up with a Campbell flag this year," he declares.

LAST YEAR the Campbell Knight Raiders Drum and Bugle Corps made almost a complete sweep of top awards in the class B division nationally. This year, their first time in the top division, they didn't fare so well. But the awards they did bring home are nothing to scoff at. Like the Pacific Northwest Championship, California Open Championship, Wisconsin State Championship and third place in the Drum Corp West Championships where this picture was taken.

NAMED AMONG the top 50 drum and bugle corps in the country this year, the Knight Raiders found the national championships "definitely a learning experience," according to their Director Garth Benham. Choreography is a good part of winning points in competition and the local group plans to have their entire color guard attend a dance studio starting next month.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

A 24-year-old Campbell man was arrested in a medical complex on Winchester at Rosemary lane last week, after a janitor spotted him inside one of the offices.

When a patrolman arrived and attempted to arrest the man a battle ensued, with two local dentists giving a hand (and getting kicked) before the suspect burglar could be taken into custody.

$800 IN WINDOWS

Earl's Transmissions, 921 Camden ave., reported numerous car windows were shot out at their storage-parking yard last week.

Total cost for replacement of the damage to vehicles, which had been left there for repair, was estimated at $800.

PARK DAMAGE

Vandals again broke off young trees at John D. Morgan park last week.

Total damage, for the three trees, was estimated at $100.

BIG HAUL

While a Campbell man was on a hunting trip last week his West Latimer avenue home was broken into and valuables stolen.

Total value of the loss was estimated at over $9,000 including steaks from the freezer, cash and an elephant statue.

WELDING COMPANY HIT

Drake Welding on Camden ave. reported the theft of $600 in cash last week from their office safe.

Also missing was office equipment.

HE TOOK THE WHOLE THING

A Campbell patrolman, who spotted a man loading a motorcycle into the back of his vehicle Monday, investigated and later arrested the man for grand theft.

But not before he chased the suspect, who drove off dragging the motorcycle behind. The suspect's car spun out during the chase and the man was taken into custody at gunpoint.

He later explained he'd taken the cycle because he needed parts.

Fighting city hall

Main focus of their talks with officials will be with the environmental impact report, filed with the San Jose planning department.

"A LOT OF THINGS were left out of the EIR," declared Pat Dimock Monday morning. She went on to specify flood control, no inclusion of the number of markets nearby or the percentage of square feet of vacancies in surrounding business areas, traffic impact on the surrounding neighborhoods and where the land is coming from for the proposed widening of Hamilton ave.

"And the noise level report is incredible," Mrs. Dimock says. According to the EIR, if residents shut their windows, the noise level will be acceptable, she says.

CAMPBELL HAS already put in their two cents' worth over the San Jose project, by hiring their own traffic engineer to study the traffic implications for Campbell.

But the city is limited in what they can do about a project outside the city limits.

As one staffer said Monday," What would Campbell do if San Jose had come in and told us not to build the Pruneyard?"

IT'S OFFICIAL

Pete Edwards has been promoted to loan officer at the Bank of America's Campbell branch, Manager Raymond Snow announced last week.

Edwards, 37, joined the staff last May and recently completed a training program in the San Jose-Central Coast region.

The local man is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis Club and a coach for the West Valley Soccer Club. He is also active in the United Fund, Heart Fund and the Y.M.C.A.

The new loan officer, and his wife Nancy, are the parents of two daughters and a son.

DUKE HONORED

Assemblyman Richard Hayden was a guest at the Nov. 2 meeting of the Campbell Kiwanis Club and he didn't come empty handed.

Hayden brought along a resolution from the California Legislature commending Dr. Wyland "Duke" Morgan for his years of distinguished community service.

The retired Campbell dentist has amassed a long list of "credits" over the years, including his stint as Campbell Chamber of Commerce president in 1940, and 12 years as school trustee for the Union School District.

But the fete that amazes most people is his 43-year perfect attendance record at the Campbell Kiwanis Club.

IN TRAINING

Selected for technical training at Lowry AFB, Colorado was Airman Roy B. Lang III, son of Roy Lang Jr., of Campbell.

The Westmont high school graduate recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas.

An Affair to Remember with BEA RENÉ
© Bea Rene 1975

Live entertainment of a 7-piece group & nightly dancing are now at the SHIRT TAIL in P.A. I visited the new facilities which incl. a lg new dance floor built in the center of the restaurant. Owner Fred Damato & his wife Joan have created a spac. supperclub - like atmosphere w/a stage where "KATZ-'n'-JAMM perform Tues.-Sat. I saw many having dinner & enjoying dancing & some sipped cocktails in the renovated Ski Lodge Lounge & danced (no cover chg.). Fred Damato hints that he'll soon bring in big-name talent for shows there.

Had to stop to see for myself GRANNY'S ATTIC on Almaden Exp. which was just as I've been told . . . If you've ever seen your grandmother's attic filled w/old treasures & keepsakes, you'll see the same souvenirs hanging from the ceiling & decorating the walls. Asst. Mgr. Paul Fisher tells me many LOL's bring small keepsakes in for them to hang, & they do just that. The food is good, wholesome steaks, chicken, roast beef, short ribs, & a spec. $4.95 dinner Sun.-Thurs. They also offer 2 FOR 1 drinks in the lounge until 6:30 pm Sun.-Thurs., & 2 for 1 all day & evening in the dining room w/lunch or dinner — I'll beat you there for sure tonight. What impressed me was the personalized service of everyone. Try GRANNY'S ATTIC for a memorable dining experience.

A reader called to thank me for the wonderful tip on the FONDU POT in Campbell. She & her lady friends enjoyed a great lunch & particularly liked the versatility of the menu, whereas some could order the Fondu Specials & others (who prefered a lighter lunch) a sandwich such as the Beef Eater or the Neptune (Seafood Salad on toasted English Muffin w/melted Cheddar Cheese) & many others. They found it such an enjoyable experience they lingered on longer than they had anticipated.

New restaurants & bars open frequently, but unfortunately not all succeed . . . unless, of course, they're engineered & owned by the very successful team of TERRY MALONEY & JOHN McMANIS. Their popular MALONEY'S in Portola Valley is one of the greatest dinner houses in the area serving not only excellent dinners but they & their staff put every effort in serving you the finest cuisine in a lovely country atmosphere. Closed Thanksgiving.

What a difference between SIRLOIN AND BREW UNLIMITED & some of the nationally-advertised steak houses! Instead of buffet-style service, they have hosts/hostesses who seat you & waitresses. To go w/their great steak dinners & wine (all you want) they feature candlelight, Tiffany lamps & intimate setting. It's like being in an expensive restaurant, but prices are in the $4.69-$7.85 range, & that incls unlimited salad, unlimited wine/beer/sangria, baked potato, everything.

Chef Dave Frey's dinner menu at BOGART'S incl. a "daily fish catch," Broiled Salmon, Sauteed Baby Lobster, Mushroom Steak & a variety of spaghetti & pasta dishes. BOGART'S is very busy catering holiday parties & theirs is one of the best catering facilities on the peninsula, so give them a call soon. You'll love the attractive "Bogey" decor & you expect to hear someone saying, "Play It Again, Sam"!

PEZZELLA'S VILLA NAPOLI will be closed Thanksgiving Day & will open for dinner Fri., Sat., & Sun. following. However, do make a note on your calendar for Nov. the 20th which is the monthly "Affair to Remember" w/"MARCIE & THE ROYALS" performing in Vegas-like style. The authentically prepared Italian dinner & the talented Pezzella family's performance are well worth your visit. Do stop by.

For the first time in 20 years, John Bikakis' THE ECHO RESTAURANT will be open on Thanksgiving Day, serving a spectacular dinner & a spec. plate for children. They'll serve from 2 p.m. & I suggest you make reservations early as this is typical family affair restaurant. Will give you the complete menu next week. Remember Lillian Smithline entertains for your singing & dancing pleasure in the lounge — you'll love this restaurant.

Last week when in Almaden Plaza Dept. Store, the attractive sales lady asked me if I could tell her more about the new salad bar restaurant in Sunnyvale — THE DRESSING ROOM. Since it's one of my favorites, I explained the fact that it had a 40 ft. long salad bar from which to choose an array of fr. vegs. & dressings. She & her friends are so interested in the salad aspect, as they are weight watchers & w/be visiting soon. It's a pleasure to recommend a fine restaurant such as THE DRESSING ROOM.

It's cheer-a-dilli time at United Methodist

Gold Rush Days

IN THE mood for the Cheer-A-Dilli Square Bazaar at the First United Methodist Church this Saturday are, from left, Betty Hawkins, Patty Childress, 3, and Sandy Childress, 5. The United Methodist Women - sponsored event gets underway at 10 a.m. and the "wagon" will be auctioned off at 6:30 that evening.
(Photography by Gordon Lew)

Pony rides, music from a honky tonk piano and auctioning off a covered wagon are a few of the unusual features of this year's Cheer-A-Dilli Square Bazaar at the First United Methodist Church of Campbell.

The event, tagged "Gold Rush Days" this year, will be held this Saturday, Nov. 13 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the 1675 S. Winchester blvd. church.

Sale booths include Tinsel Trappings (Christmas things), Gold Nugget (crafts and jewelry) and the Lillipop Station. A toy booth, baked goods, plants and needlework booth will also be open for business.

During the day Bill Palmatier will perform on the piano, while a choral group, "Make a Joyful Noise" is scheduled for a 7:30 p.m. performance.

Lunch and dinner will be served that day, at 11:30 a.m. and 5:30 to 7 p.m., and there will also be games and rides provided by the United Methodist Youth Fellowship.

For meal ticket reservations call the church office at 378-3472.

Lead roles in 'Salute' go to Campbell vocalists

Campbell will continue the "town gossip" and storyteller to the "Salute to Music Man" performance by the San Jose chapter of Sweet Adelines this Saturday, Nov. 13.

Among locals featured in the 8:15 p.m. performance at Flint Center, are two with leading roles.

Hetty Baxter will portray town gossip Alma Hicks, including the humorous "Pick a Little Talk a Little" number while Marge Buell acts a storyteller Marion Paroo.

Featured in juvenile roles are Russell MacDermott and Ernie Broughton, also of Campbell.

For ticket information call the Flint Center Box Office.

Their 'treats were donated to children in hospital

Patients in the children's ward of Valley Medical Center had a tasty Halloween this year, due in part to members of the Campbell Evening Optimist Club.

Over 200 children and adults attended the Optimist's Halloween party and Haunted House the night before.

There was no admission charge but everyone brought a bag of wrapped candy as a donation.

Club spokesmen say the party was such a success they're thinking of having a public candy raiser next year.

Cupid heads for Gem

Nov. 13 thru Nov. 19, 1976

ARIES (March 21-April 19): What you fuss and fidget about is not apt to become reality, so try to unwind. Week ahead has potential for success, Ari, if you'll just have more faith in yourself. And please, my restless ram, stop grousing about past injustices.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): If you find you haven't enough vivre in your amour, Taurus, it may be that fatigue and anxiety are the rotten culprits. Get more time in the sack. If sleep doesn't come easily try warm milk at bedtime, for it's the second-best soporific available. Mind Olga and when Cupid flirts, you'll have the strength to flirt back.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Cupid is headed in your direction, Gem, so put out the welcome mat. A little romance could go a long way toward raising your morale and lowering your blood pressure.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Recognition on its way. Others salute. Your self-image soars. On last day, Moonbaby, love theme increases in intensity. Be gentle.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Catch-as-catch-can week ahead, Leo, with you doing more than your share of the catching. Fouls abound. Be fleet-of-foot and silent-of-mouth if you want opponent penalized. End of week finds you exhausted but cocky.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Hold fast to your secret dreams, dear Virgo. In fact, you should embrace these dreams, for they may prove to be your salvation. Confidences can be safely shared this week. Last day a real pip.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): The new and the novel beckon. Don't fear tomorrow, my gentle Libra, for after all, none of us have been there, and it just may prove to be your lucky day. In fact, I'll put my buck/mark/yen on you, Libra, any old day of the week.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Favor sure to be asked. Agree to do it, Scorp, and then keep your mouth shut. In fact, keeping your mouth shut just may be in the favor asked. Week hustles to a hectic fini. You fold.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Good week for change. Relentless routine means boredom and boredom means hidden tension. You needn't change your way of livin', Saj, or even the way you strut your stuff . . . but, you really should try to put a little variety (translated: fun) into your life. Now, get started.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): What you thought had ended isn't really over at all. You get new energy. Use it to tighten up old act. You're a comer, Cap. Hot diggity!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): The house lights dim and the drama begins. Main character behaves in predictable manner. However, as curtain falls on Act One, you are confused. Sit tight and hang on to your program, Aquari, for Act Two takes place next week.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Unexpected encounter may have you on merry-go-round. Don't strain reaching for brass ring, Pisces, for it only entitles you to another ride. Besides, this week you're dizzy enough!

WVAL race in shambles

Onetto runs wild in Don win over Bruins

By DICK SPARRER
Sports Editor

THE FIRST SIX times Bob Onetto ran the football for Del Mar high last Friday against Branham, he could pick up just a total of two yards for the Dons against the tough Bruins.

But it almost appeared as though the speedy Del Mar running back was setting up Branham for things to come.

Because in Onetto's next 14 carries in the game he ran for 122 yards to lead Del Mar to an important 21-7 victory over Branham on the Don field.

The win was important because it threw the WVAL standings into a shambles. Everyone is still in the race with just three games left to play in the WVAL season.

Only a single game separates the league leader from the last place team in the well balanced WVAL.

Branham went into the game with the Dons last Friday with sole possession of first place. But after the loss to Del Mar the Bruins found themselves tied for the lead.

The Dons, in last place just two weeks earlier, are now sitting just a half game out of first with a definite shot at the title.

It took a come-from-behind effort by the Dons to drop Branham last week. The Dons trailed at one point in the game 7-0 — for all of 15 seconds!

Branham turned a Del Mar fumble into a touchdown in the first period. The Bruins recovered a Dave Hernandez bobble midway through the period and four plays later hit the scoreboard to jump in front 7-0 with 6:19 left in the first.

BUT THE DONS wasted no time putting together their comeback. Onetto fielded the Bruin kick-off at his own 13, ran to the middle of the field where he picked up a key block from Pete Angelidakis and then broke to the outside to scamper 87 yards for a touchdown. Yogi Taylor's kick tied the game at 7-7.

The clubs traded the ball before the Don defense stopped Branham on a big fourth down play at the DM 36 to gain possession early in the second quarter. John Riccitiello, Blake Fearnside and Larry Oreglia registered key defensive plays for Del Mar to stop the Bruins.

The Don offense came right back with an ominous 13 play, 64 yard drive for a touchdown to take the lead with 4:42 left in the half. Quarterback Jeff Lane snuck over for the final yard for the touchdown and Taylor kicked the extra point to make it 14-7.

The second quarter was just two plays old when DM took the ball over. A big eight yard, third down pass from Lane to George Rodriguez got Del Mar going.

Rodriguez broke a reverse 18 yards for a first down behind a key block by Tim Holland and Onetto crashed five yards for an important first on a fourth down play deep in Branham territory.

Two plays later, the Dons facing a third down and 10 at the 19, Onetto broke one 13 yards to the six to give Del Mar a key first down. After Hernandez bruised his way for five yards, Lane snuck over for the TD.

Del Mar came back with the game's final score early in the third period. Greg Tardieu returned the second half kick-off 13 yards to the 32 to get the Dons started.

Onetto burst for 15 yards before Hernandez gained one to take the football to the Don 48.

On the very next play Onetto took a Lane hand-off and romped 52 yards untouched for a Don score. Taylor's kick made it 21-7.

Neither team threatened through the rest of the third period but the two clubs frantically started trading the football in the fourth.

FIVE PLAYS into the fourth a Lane pass was intercepted by Branham but on the third Bruin pass try Willie Richardson intercepted for the Dons.

Del Mar fumbled on its first play after the interception but wasted no time getting the football right back.

Bert Tardieu hit Branham's Bill Tantillo as he set to pass and the ball bounced into the hands of Angelidakis who carried 16 yards to the Bruin 14.

The Dons took the ball down the one before fumbling again but the Bruins had their backs to the wall.

Branham drove out to the 25 before turning the ball over and Del Mar ran out the clock for the victory.

Del Mar rolled up 209 total yards in the contest, 181 of it on the ground.

Onetto led the Don attack with 124 yards on 20 carries and Rodriguez picked up 28 yards on six tries.

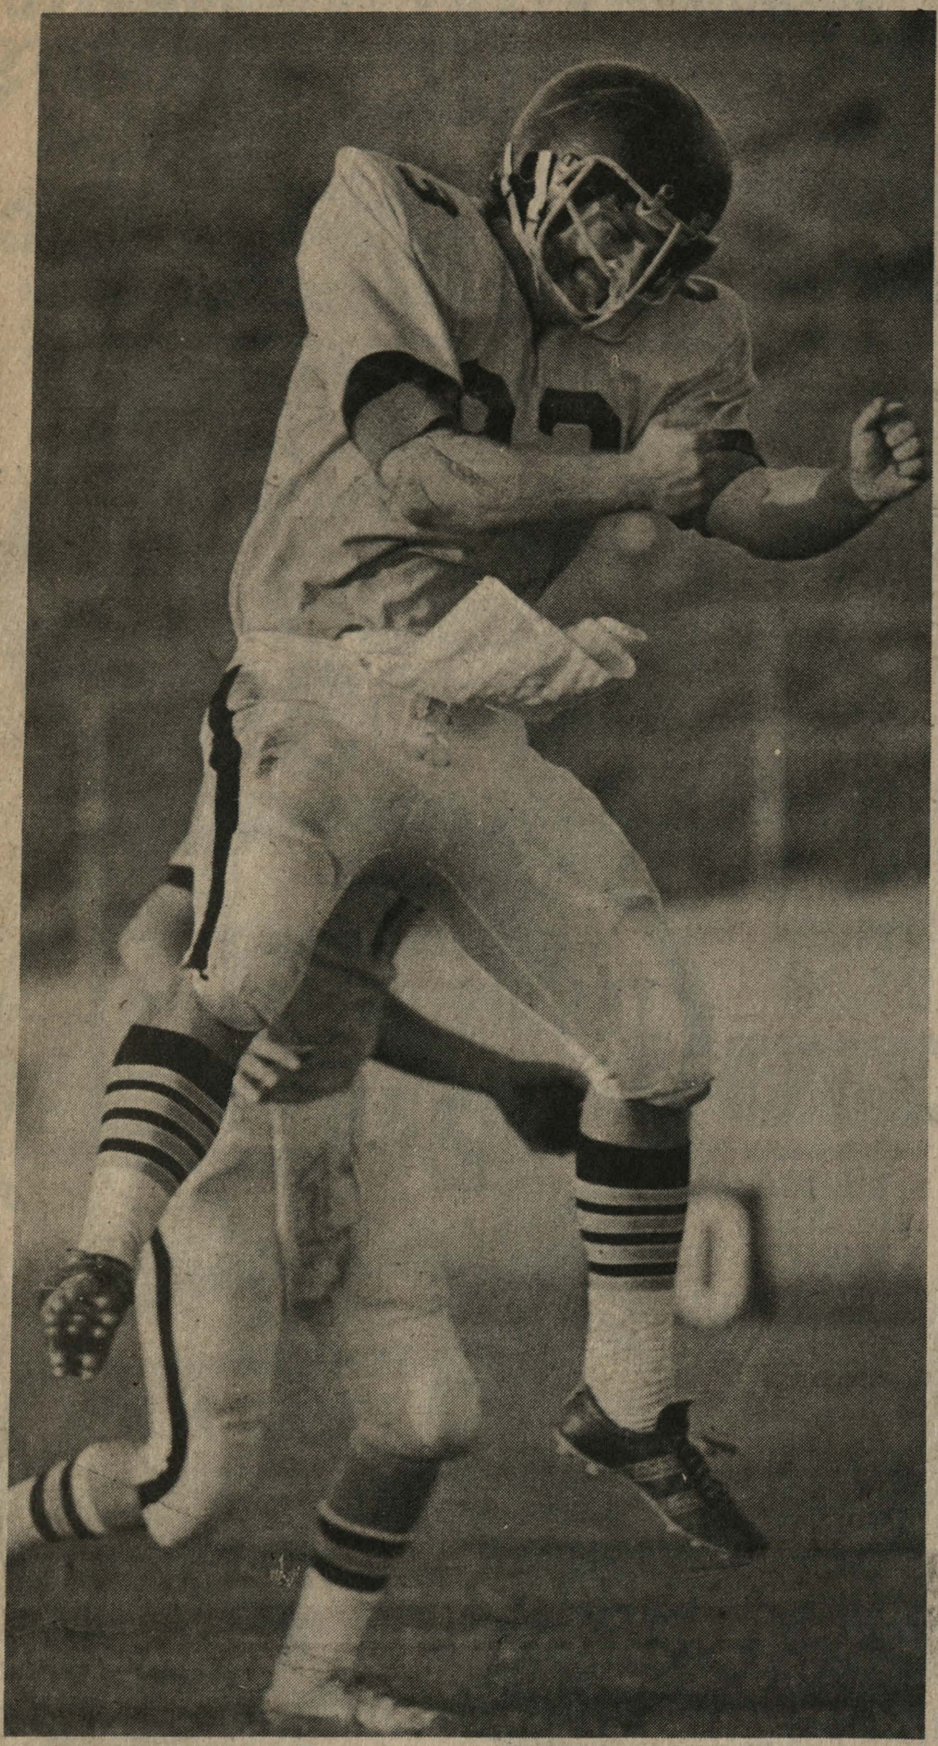
Lane completed three of six passes for 28 yards, hitting Rodriguez on all three pass tries.

Angelidakis, Holland, Jordon Gill, Andy Lazzino, Ken Barone and Taylor all played well in the offensive line in the game for the Dons.

Jim Slattary and Fearnside led Don tacklers in the win defensively and Riccitiello, B. Tardieu, Angelidakis, Oreglia and G. Tardieu also made key stops.

Ernie Watkins, Clifton Warren, Tom Harris, Mark Miller and Mark Herrera were also in on big tackles in the win for Del Mar.

Del Mar faces a big game against defending champion Los Gatos this Wednesday at 2:45 p.m. The Dons will put their 2-2-1 record against the Cat's 3-3 mark.



IT'S GOOD! — Dan "Yogi" Taylor leaps joyfully into the air, as he does after converting extra point kicks, in last week's 21-7 win over the Branham Bruins. Taylor, a .400 hitter in baseball, hasn't missed an extra point kick yet this season.

Bryant races to 1st place finish

WESTMONT'S Steve Bryant raced to a first place finish to lead the Warrior cross country team to a very close 26-29 West Valley Athletic League win over Prospect last week on the Warrior course.

Bryant breezed to first place, clocked at 12:27 in the Monday afternoon meet to pace the Warrior victory.

In other WVAL action the same day, Campbell lost on all four divisions to Branham despite a strong varsity performance by Javier Barrigan.

Barrigan finished first in the varsity class at 12:16 but the Bucs dropped the team decision 20-37. Campbell lost 15-50 in the junior varsity division, 21-34 on the sophomore level and 21-37 in the freshman race.

Los Gatos' Vance Eberly finished first at 10:57 to lead the Cats to a 23-38 win over Blackford. Los Gatos also took the braves in the other three divisions.

Paul Brewer led Leigh to an 18-43 win over Camden last week, the Longhorns clinching the WVAL dual meet title with an 8-0 record. The title secures Leigh no worse for the West Valley league championship, decided half by dual meets and half by performance at the league finals.

The finals were slated for Tuesday, Nov. 9, at the Coyote Park course. Leigh went in as the favorite in the varsity, jv and freshman divisions after finishing 8-0 on all three levels in league competition. Los Gatos' 8-0 sophomores were the favorites in that class.

In a non-league meet last week, Saratoga dropped Del Mar 17-44. The Dons won 25-32 in the jv race and 19-40 on the freshman level but lost the sophomore race 22-33.

A "LEARN TO SKI" seminar for non-skiers will be held on two Wednesdays, Nov. 10 and 17, at 7:30 p.m. at Homestead high school in Cupertino, the event sponsored by Any Mountain Ltd.

DANCING DON — Del Mar Don wingback Rick Haugh dances away from a would-be tackler in action last Friday afternoon against the Branham Bruins. The Dons pulled out a surprising 21-7 upset of the first place Bruins, throwing the West Valley Athletic League title race into a shambles.

Bucs win to stay close in WVAL race

NOT MANY TEAMS can be sitting in last place five weeks into the season and still have a shot at the league championship. But that's exactly the situation the Campbell Buccaneers are in.

The Bucs, thanks to a 26-7 whipping of the Blackford Braves last Friday, moved to within a game of first place in the West Valley Athletic League despite sharing the loop cellar with Camden and Leigh.

Campbell, like Camden and Leigh, holds a 2-3 record following its second win in as many weeks to rest just one game in back of co-league leading Branham and Westmont. Blackford, meanwhile, missed its chance to slip into sole possession of first place in the WVAL, instead sliding back into third with a 3-2-1 record.

"It's kind of frustrating," said Campbell head coach Al Matthews. "We should be 5-1 right now. But at least we're still in it, I guess."

The Bucs have climbed back into the WVAL title race in the last two weeks by rediscovering its time consuming ground game.

Campbell rode the solid running of Dave Burns, Mark Ryan and Carlos Velasco last week to post its important win.

FOLLOWING THE BLOCKS of Brian Bagley, Glen Gray, Kevin Smith and Dave Wagner, Velasco rambled for 63 yards and two touchdowns; Ryan rushed for 62 yards and one TD, and Burns romped for 58 yards and one score.

Velasco got the Buccaneers on the scoreboard first with a six yard run in the opening stanza.

Burns later upped Campbell's lead to 14-0 in the quarter with a seven yard touchdown bolt and a two point conversion run.

The Braves made things close in the second quarter when Rich Andelin scampered 32 yards for Blackford's only touchdown of the game. Brett Eastman's extra point kick pulled the Braves to within a touchdown of the Bucs at the half.

Andelin finished the game as the Braves' leading rusher, toting the ball 10 times for 60 yards.

But Campbell pulled away for good in the third period on a 10 yard jaunt into the Blackford endzone by Ryan. Velasco iced the win in the final period with an 11 yard run to paydirt.

While the Buc offense rang up its second highest point total in a game this season, the Campbell defense sparkled behind the play of M. Ryan, Galen Stranigan, Dino Hermandez, Dan Rozewicz, Steve Aimonetti, Steve Sexton, Pat Ryan, Rich Kiss and Smith.

Turning in strong defensive efforts for the Braves were Mark Publicover, Jeff Gippetti, Ken Rossi, Mike Turnwall and Sean O'Carroll.

Campbell will try to even its league record Saturday morning when it travels to Leigh high school for an 11 a.m. contest with the Longhorns, who have also won their last two games after losing their first three.

Blackford, meanwhile, will try to snap a two game losing streak Wednesday afternoon at Camden against the Cougars. Game time is 2:45 p.m.

Prep pickers end tough week

Those teams in the WVAL are putting together an

MAYBE WE SHOULD just list the teams and let you readers fill in the blanks! You'd have to do a better job picking the winners in the West Valley Athletic League football games than we have this season.

We suffered again this week in the WVAL, finishing with 1-4 record to drop to a dismal 21-18 on the season. we're 19-1; our first miss coming last week when Pioneer nipped San Jose 7-6.

Close games have been our undoing this year in the WVAL. There have been 15 games decided by a touchdown or less — we've missed on 12 of them!

Things have to pick up in the West Valley league this week — they certainly couldn't get any worse.

The league will play most of its games on Wednesday. Los Gatos will visit Del Mar and will win by six; Branham will win by four at Westmont and Blackford will win by three at Camden.

On Saturday, Leigh and Campbell will square off on the Longhorn field at 11 a.m. and the Bucs will win by six.

In the STAL, three games are set for 2:45 p.m. on Friday. Live Oak will win by 24 at Gunderson; Gilroy will win by three at Pioneer and Willow Glen will win by six at home against Lincoln.

Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at San Jose City College Leland will stop San Jose by 22.

Another close Warrior win

Scacutto scrambles to game winning TD

"IT WAS ANOTHER typical Westmont game," chuckled Warrior football coach Don Stagnaro.

Stagnaro's club had just pulled out another barnburner with a last minute rally that gave the Warriors a thrilling 21-20 non-league victory over Fremont high school last Thursday at Fremont.

Like the Oakland A's often say, they don't lose 'em easy and they don't win 'em easy.

Of the Warriors seven games this season, better than half have been decided in the closing minutes, prompting Stagnaro to nickname his club the "Cardiac Kids."

"We came back well," said Stagnaro, noting his club trailed 20-8 heading into the final quarter. "Hopefully, this comeback will give us the momentum we need for this week. This is a big week for us."

The Warriors, who share the West Valley Athletic League lead with a 3-2 record (just one game ahead of the last place Leigh Longhorns and Camden Cougars), battle the Branham Bruins (3-2-1) Wednesday afternoon at Westmont. Game time is 2:45 p.m.

All purpose back Eric Stark will return to the Warrior line-up for the big game after missing two weeks with a shoulder separation.

"We have to make sure we eliminate mistakes," Stagnaro said. "We can't afford to make any mistakes against them. Branham has a wide open attack. They run and pass equally well and are very aggressive. They're an excellent outfit."

AGAINST FREMONT last week, the Warriors waited until the final two seconds of the game to pull out the victory.

Starting at their own 30 yard line with less than a minute and a half to play, the Warriors marched to the Indian five yard line. With just enough time to run one more play, quarterback Randy Scacutto dropped back to pass and then scrambled into the endzone for a game tying touchdown.

Rick Alvear then came on to snap the tie with a pressure packed extra point kick.

Scacutto, who completed 14 of 20 passes for 187 yards in the win, sparked the last ditch drive for Westmont with a 14 yard pass to Rocky Pena and a 12 yard toss to Greg Athearn. Another big play was a 21 yard bolt by Mark Kahn on a trap.

Earlier in the quarter Scacutto had capped a short three play, 47 yard march with a 37 yard bomb to Pena. Pena caught 10 of Scacutto's tosses on the night for 147 yards. He now has 34 receptions for the year.

Westmont got on the scoreboard for the first time in the third period with Fremont holding a 14-0 lead.

Scacutto and Pena hooked up for a 21 yard TD pass to put the Warriors back in the game and complete a 65 yard drive.

TEN YARD RUNS by Athearn and Kahn coupled with passes of nine and 10 yards to Pena highlighted the drive.

Scacutto added the two point conversion on the option keeper, a play that later proved crucial.

While the Warriors relied mainly on their passing game to come back, Westmont also received a couple of fine rushing efforts. Kahn led the Warriors with 53 yards on 12 carries while Athearn added 43 on six tries.

Los Gatos shakes scoring slump to batter Panthers

THE PROSPECT Panthers had a decision to make in the first period against Los Gatos last Friday afternoon in West Valley Athletic League play.

The Panthers faced a fourth down at the Wildcat four with the score deadlocked at 0-0 early in the game. Prospect faced the decision of going for six points or settling for three.

Prospect elected to go for the three and Dave Angerole came through with flying colors by drilling a 21 yard field goal to give the Panthers a 3-0 lead.

The strategy was good and gave Prospect an early lead against a Cat team that has had trouble scoring all year.

How were the Panthers to know that it would be this Friday that the Wildcats would break into the offensive form that led them to the WVAL championship in 1975.

Los Gatos broke loose for 28 points against Prospect to roll up a 28-3 victory and help toss the WVAL race into a jumbled mess.

Los Gatos knocked off Prospect to even its WVAL record at 3-3 and drop the Panthers to 3-3. The two clubs are each just a half game out of first place in the tight WVAL race.

The Panthers took the early lead against the Wildcats on Angerole's field goal, good strategy since the Cats had scored just four touchdowns in their last three games.

BUT PROSPECT didn't count on John Breidenthal getting a smell of paydirt.

Breidenthal had scored just twice on the year for Los Gatos. But the hard running Cat back romped for four touchdowns against the Panthers to lift LG to the win.

Breidenthal scored on runs of 20, two, one and one yards to pace Los Gatos to the victory. The Wildcat scored once in each period against the Panthers.

Angerole held his league scoring lead with the field goal. The three points upped his season point total to 45 on six touchdowns, six conversion kicks and the one field goal.

Prospect hit the Cats on the first offensive play of the game with the bomb. Steve Hill hit Bill Stokes with a long pass down to the five yard line to put the Panthers in position for the field goal.

But that was about all the offense Prospect could manage in turning in one of their most lackluster performances of the season.

The Panthers will get a week off from the torrid WVAL race this weekend. Prospect will visit Cupertino for a 7 p.m. game on Saturday.

Crafty Bell hurls DM past Sunnyvale, 4-2

PITCHING WITH the craftiness of a veteran, young Tom Bell turned in his finest performance of the season last Sunday morning to hurl the Del Mar Rainbows to a 4-2 win over the Sunnyvale Suns in Semi-Pro Winter League baseball action.

"He was in completec ontrol all of the way," praised manager-player Gary Cunningham. "He kept the ball low and away. It was his best game of the season by far."

During his route going seven inning performance, Bell, just a sophomore at Del Mar high school, walked only one batter and fanned seven while allowing but four hits.

The Rainbows, meanwhile, supplied Bell with all of the runs he was to need with a three run outburst in the first inning.

Singles by Eric Richesin and Cunningham sandwiched around a walk to Doc Medica loaded the bases. Bell then drilled a deep fly to right, scoring Richesin and moving Medica and Cunningham into scoring position.

Medica scored moments later on a wild pitch and Cunningham tallied all the way from second when the throw from the Suns' catcher to the pitcher covering home sailed into the outfield.

The Rainbows added an insurance run in the top of the fifth. Catcher Jim Dorr led-off the inning with a robust double to right-centerfield. Fred Gradel was inserted as a pinch-runner and proceeded to steal third, later coming home on a wild pitch.

BELL RECEIVED plenty of defensive support in the win from third sacker Medica, first baseman Jeff Blobaum and Dorr, who gunned out three Suns runners trying to steal.

In the nightcap, Del Mar and Sunnyvale battled to a 6-6 tie.

Mark Intrieri deserved a better fate than a tie, yielding only three earned runs in seven innings of mound work. He scattered eight hits and fanned six. Five Del Mar errors, however, cost him the win.

Bell kept his batting average above the .400 mark with a two for three effort at the plate while Dorr and Medica also chipped in with two hit performances. Cunningham, meanwhile, kept his batting average around .650 with a hit.

One impressive hitting streak was extended and another was ended in the double dipper.

Cunningham barely stretched his hitting streak to 14 straight games with a drag bunt single in the first game and a single to left in the last inning of the second game, which also drove in Medica from second with the tying run.

E. Richesin, meanwhile, had his hitting streak snapped at 12 straight in the second game when he was robbed of a hit in his last trip to the plate in the second game by the Suns' shortstop.

Del Mar, which wound up the first half with a 7-6-1 record, opens second half play Sunday with games at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. at Mitty high school.

AMONG THOSE working on the San Jose Woman's Club bazaar are Campbell residents, from left, Mrs. John Prolo and Chairman Mrs. C. S. Nebeker. The event is Friday, Nov. 19, at the Club House.

Oldest club holds their Xmas bazaar

The "oldest club" in the state has some new ideas for their annual bazaar planned for Friday, Nov. 19 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"Holiday Boutique" is the theme of the event, sponsored by the San Jose Woman's Club, chartered in 1894.

The sale will be held in the Club House at 75 S. 11th st.

Specialty gifts, plants and antiques are some of the sale items that day.

Proceeds this year will go to benefit "Project Arthritis." Club members learned last year there was no branch office for the arthritis group in this area and set out to remedy the situation.

Through the help of Oak Hill Mortuary (who's paying part of the rent), the Club opened a San Jose Project office at 1213 Lincoln ave., suite 201 early this year.

Elves will be working in Campbell this season

Local youngsters can make Christmas gifts for family and friends at the second annual Elves Workshop sponsored by Campbell Community Services.

The four week crafts class, held each Wednesday from 3:30 to 5 p.m. begins on Wednesday, Nov. 17 at Campbell junior high school.

Open to youngsters 9 to 12 years of age, registration fee for the class is $5.

Deadline for sign-ups is tomorrow, Nov. 12.

For information call Kathy Cote at 378-8141, ext. 252.

BEING CONFINED to a wheelchair with a spinal deformity hasn't slowed Joe Ouellette down too much. He takes a lively interest in school, work, art and his music. Pictured with one of his latest watercolors, Joe recently won a top award in an art competition and came away from the show with more than a ribbon. He also sold three paintings. Ironically, the one he brought back home with him was the prizewinner.

(Photography by Phil Nelson)

Joe's turned on to music and college . . . and art

WINNING PRIZES for his art work is nothing new to Joe Ouellette, who recently came away with third place in a Bay Area-wide competition.

The 19-year-old West Valley college student won his first contest 16 years ago, when he took first place in a drawing contest at his nursery school.

And his latest "win" was for a watercolor of an old abandoned longboat at the ninth annual art exhibit of work by handicapped artists sponsored by the Mayor's Committee for Employment of the Handicapped in San Francisco.

The Camden high school graduate, son of Frenchie and Carol Ouellette of Longfellow drive, was surprised that his longboat picture was a winner.

"Since it was a San Francisco show, Joe felt one of the other works, such as the Golden Gate Bridge watercolor, might be a winner," says his mother. "But the prize winner was something he just dashed off."

WHILE JOE has always shown a flair for art, he didn't work at it seriously until his sophomore year in high school, says Carol Ouellette.

"He really got turned on when he had an art class with George Matulich," Mrs. Ouellette explained. "That teacher captured Joe's interest and he's never stopped." In fact his major at West Valley is in technical illustration and graphics.

But art isn't the only interest Joe has. He also plays the guitar, listens to rock music and occasionally plays with a five-man combo.

"He's the busiest kid you ever saw," Mrs. Ouellette declares, "especially for someone in a wheelchair."

11 11/11/18

At the eleventh hour of the eleventh day in the eleventh month of 1918, the guns fell silent in France as the First World War drew to a bloody close. Since then, Armistice Day, now called Veterans' Day, has been commemorated in America and abroad as a reminder to all mankind of the tragedy that is war.

County Transit will observe the traditional Veterans' Day, Thursday, November 11, and will operate holiday schedules.

To accommodate our passengers who must work or attend school that day, however, County Transit will expand its holiday schedules to begin service earlier and continue later than is customary. Generally, County Transit lines will run from approximately 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Lines 22, 23 and 64 will continue to run until approximately 9:00 p.m. Line 20 and a portion of Line 24, which normally do not run on holidays, will have peak hour service. Line 66 will connect with BART. South County Dial-A-Ride service will be available from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.

For detailed routes and schedules, please call County Transit Information in your area. In the San Jose area, call 287-4210; in the Palo Alto area, the number is 965-3100; in Morgan Hill, San Martin and Gilroy, dial 683-4151.

"Merit Delivers More Taste Than Higher Tar Cigarettes."

-American Institute of Consumer Opinion

Extensive taste testing shows Merit delivers flavor of cigarettes having 60% more tar.

The bottom line was conclusive:

In a series of taste tests conducted for MERIT by the American Institute of Consumer Opinion,* smokers from across the country judged MERIT to have more flavor than five leading low tar cigarette brands.

What's really startling—and of major importance to all smokers—is that MERIT has less tar than these five brands.

WHATEVER HAPPENED to GOOD OLD FASHIONED VALUE

Before the days of skyrocketing prices, people lived within their means. That was a good feeling. Paul Swanson believes people should still know that feeling. That's why you will find realistic price tags, reflecting only the cost of the car and a small margin of profit, on every car we sell. We believe in low prices and we make them available to you.

GETTING acquainted with local business owners last week was Ted Rogers, new executive vice president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce. For 26 years Rogers was a staffer in the Boy Scout program. And he doesn't feel chamber and scouting work are too different. ''You're working with volunteers,'' he explained. But there are two big changes he's noted. ''First, the pay is better . . . and you won't have to worry about summer camp.''

Campbellites featured in Christmas Lane

SEVERAL CAMPBELL residents will be taking part in the 15th annual Christmas Lane Show, scheduled for Nov. 19 through Nov. 22 at Civic Auditorium and McCabe Hall in San Jose.

Fern Riggs will be displaying a table setting and a niche while Mary and Elizabeth Burkhouse will be demonstrating holiday craft ideas and displaying niche. And the Campbell Garden Club, under the leadership of Mary Baycura will be exhibiting a niche and a display table.

Christmas Lane Chairman for the Santa Clara Valley District this year is also a Campbell resident; Lorraine Doetsch.

SPECIAL FEATURES of the show, which runs from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 19 and 20; from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 21 and from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday, Nov. 22, are decorated mailboxes, a toy train exhibit and table settings and holiday miniature scenes.

Old jet plane will leave Campbell in bits and pieces

THE OLD Air Force training jet won't be in Campbell park for people to kick around anymore. Monday night the City Council authorized staff to go ahead and accept the offer by one salvage company to remove the plane, at no cost to the city. And the main reason for removal of the park play structure is that youngsters have been kicking the plane around, prying loose the metal edges and costing the city excessive maintenance costs and concern over possible liability for injury. A close-up view of the trainer shows the dozens of patch jobs.

Holiday classes offered

Candlemaking for children and French holiday cooking for adults are some of the special classes being offered at the Cambrian Community center this season.

There are still openings for children age eight to 11 in the candlemaking class, while the Elve's Delight cooking class for kids 7 to 9 years and Santa's Sweettooth, for 5 and 6 year olds are also open.

Adults can learn how to cook a holiday meal using French cuisine this year.

All classes begin in late Nov. or early December.

For information call the Center, located at Bohnett School, 2275 S. Bascom ave., at 377-2631.

Chamber executive

If a man answers it's Ted Rogers

TED ROGERS may get a callus on his dialing finger but he intends to contact each of the 370 members of the Chamber of Commerce by phone sometime this month.

On the job as executive vice president for three weeks now, his first order of business is making personal contact with everyone. Besides introducing himself, Rogers is also making a poll of which type of meeting members prefer: breakfast, lunch, cocktail hour or evening.

Until he, and his wife Louise, sell their home in Glendale, Rogers has been commuting to that southern California city each weekend.

THE NEW Chamber head is no stranger to Campbell, but it's been eight years since he lived in Sunnyvale and worked in this area raising money for the Boy Scouts. And during those years Rogers says Campbell has done a lot of changing. From a small town into what he calls a minimetropolis, "with all the growing pains of a large city such as traffic, and old downtown and shopping centers in outlying areas."

Main reason for the big change, Rogers feels, is the freeways. "They've made Campbell accessible," he explains. "And if the other (West Valley) freeway goes through Campbell will be right in the hub of three freeways."

ANOTHER SURPRISE to Rogers is with the many fine restaurants which have opened in recent years.

"There's more good eating places in Campbell than in Glendale and Burbank combined," he declares.

Rogers sees his job as carrying out the program formulated by the Chamber executive board.

It's also the chamber's job to lobby on behalf of merchants and members, he says, and also to be a public relations arm of city government on behalf of the whole community.

In the past the Campbell Chamber has gotten some criticism from official circles for their low membership, but Rogers thinks the local group is just about on target.

THE NATIONAL chamber organization says chambers should expect 16 per cent saturation (members) of the total business community and, with 2,395 business license holders in Campbell, Rogers says the Chamber is at about 15 per cent now.

Future concerns Rogers plans to address include the Chamber's office location. Now situated in The Factory, the new leader says he will poll the members to find out their feelings.

"The key, I think, is accessibility," he notes.

And Rogers shouldn't be too hard to find either. Just look for the man in the Chamber office with a sore dialing finger.

CAMPBELL high school graduate Susan Snook is the soloist for ''The Swan of Tuonela,'' at the Saturday, Nov. 20, performance by the West Valley Symphony Orchestra.

Beethoven opens symphony season

BEETHOVEN, PUCCINI and Verdi are some of the composers works to be featured at the first concert by the West Valley Symphony Orchestra on Saturday, Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. in the Saratoga campus theater.

Under the direction of Ross Bergantz, the orchestra will open the free concert with Beethoven's ''Symphony No. 3 — The Eroica,'' followed by ''The Swan of Tuonela,'' by Jean Sibelius.

Featured soloists will be Susan Snook on the English horn and guest soloist Pegi DiBari.

Susan holds a masters degree in performance practices from Stanford University and is now completing requirements for a Ph.D with emphasis on 18th century compositional theory.

PEGI, A SOPRANO, will present selections from several operas, including ''Depuis le jour,'' from the opera ''Louise'' by Charpentier and the Cavatina from Act K of ''Ernani'' by Verdi.
